

a the ARTICLES an

ENGLISH ARTICLES

Članovi

IN THE CONTEXT OF SPORTS

USING ARTICLES IN ENGLISH

NOUN:

CONTEXT:

ARTICLE:

singular
countable

- general
- specific

a, an the plural /

uncountable

- general
- specific

zero
the proper learn when to use zero or the

‘a’ / ‘an’ - The Indefinite Article (neodređeni član)

Use “a” or “an” before singular nouns when talking about something in general:

- A football match can last up to 90 minutes plus stoppage time.
- An athlete needs to train regularly to maintain performance levels.
- She won a medal at the swimming competition.
- An umpire has the authority to make decisions in a tennis match.

‘a’ / ‘an’ - The Indefinite Article (neodređeni član)

Use “a” or “an” before singular nouns when you mention something for the first time [after that, use “the”]:

- A player was injured during the match. Fortunately, the player was able to recover.
- We went to a handball match last evening. We watched the match from the front row.

‘a’ / ‘an’ - The Indefinite Article (neodređeni član)

Use “a” or “an” before singular nouns when you mention players/practitioners of a sport:

- My sister is an archer.
- I am training to be a professional wrestler.
- They need a goalie (goalkeeper) for their hockey team.

'the' - The Definite Article (određeni član)

Use "the" when talking about something specific:

- The match between Serbia and Brazil was intense.
- The player who scored the last goal was from Argentina.
- The basketball game last night was incredible.
- Have you ever played on the court near the river?

‘the’ - The Definite Article (određeni član)

Use “the” when there is only one of something, such as sporting events:

- The World Cup is held every four years.
- The Olympic Games bring together athletes from around the world.
- He won the Australian Open multiple times.

‘the’ - The Definite Article (određeni član)

Use “the” with superlatives and with ordinal numbers (redni brojevi):

- He is the best player on the team.
- That was the most exciting match of the season.
- This is the first time they have won the championship.
- He finished the race in the third place.
 - Note: He finished _ third/second/first...; She won (the) first place.

Ø - The Zero Article (nulti član, tj. bez člana)

Use “Ø” with plural countable and uncountable nouns when talking about things in general:

- _ Sports are a great way to stay fit.
- _ Mixed martial artists often suffer from _ head injuries.
- _ Ping-pong players need _ agility and _ quick reflexes.
- _ Football players practiced _ penalty kicks for the entire practice.

Ø - The Zero Article (nulti član, tj. bez člana)

Use “Ø” with names of sports in general – they are uncountable nouns:

- _ Beach volleyball is a fun summer activity.
- He plays _ basketball every weekend.
- She is interested in taking up _ gymnastics.

Use “Ø” with sporting events named after the place where the event happens:

- I qualified for _ Wimbledon/Roland-Garros this year.

[Full names: The Wimbledon Championships / The French Open]

_ football = fudbal

a football = fudbalska lopta

Countries / national teams with the:

the United States, the United Kingdom, the United Arab Emirates, the Netherlands, the Czech Republic, the Philippines, the Ivory Coast

“Serbia played the Ivory Coast in the World Cup.”

_ Real Madrid will play _ Chelsea in the semi-final.

The (Denver) Nuggets will play the (Miami) Heat in the finals.

Zero article “Ø” with news headlines (titles):

“_ Serbian National Team Triumphs in _ World Cup Qualifiers”

“_ Marathon Runner Sets _ New Course Record”

“LeBron James makes NBA history as _ Lakers beat _ Timberwolves”

Example sentences

- She bought a tennis racket yesterday.
- She's using the tennis racket she bought last week.
- She plays _ tennis every weekend.

Example sentences

- He bought an American football to practice with his friends.
- He's playing with the American football he got for his birthday.
- He plays _ American football, which is very popular in the United States.

Example sentences

- He's considering joining a judo club in the city.
- He's joining the judo club at the university.
- _ Judo requires _ balance and _ technique.

Example sentences

- She usually wins a medal when she competes.
- She usually wins the gold/silver/bronze medal when she competes.
- In the end, all competitors received _ medals for participating.

Example sentences

- They are going to a basketball game next week.
- They are going to the basketball game next week.
- _ Basketball games are exciting to watch.

Example sentences

- The right wing's accurate pass led to a goal in the football match on Sunday.
- The right wing's accurate pass led to the goal in the football match on Sunday.
- Bring me a pair of ski boots from the closet.
- Bring me the pair of ski boots from the closet.